What is NSDL?

- An NSF-funded $20 million/year program in Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) education
- A digital library describing nearly two million carefully selected online STEM resources from well over 100 collections (at <http://nsdl.org>)
- A core integration team (Columbia, Cornell, UCAR) working with 9 “pathways” portals and over 200 NSF grantees
- A large community of researchers, librarians, content providers, developers, students, and teachers
